1. Read Oliver's story for the school short story competition.

Ethan is a teenage boy who lives close to Fairbanks, Alaska. It's very cold there in winter and it snows from September to May. Summers are very short but Ethan doesn't mind that because he loves winter. Ethan lives with his parents in a house outside Fairbanks, so in winter, his father takes him to school in town. Of course, he has to be very careful while he's driving because there is snow and ice everywhere. At weekends, Ethan and his family go for long walks in the snow after lunch and, in his free time, he plays for the Fairbanks Ice Dogs, a Junior A ice hockey team. Ethan and his parents sometimes sit in the garden in the evenings and watch the Northern Lights. It's the most amazing experience in the whole world!

Right now, Ethan is standing outside his house and he's looking at the beautiful Tanana Valley, where Fairbanks is, and the Chena River that runs through the valley. He's thinking about tomorrow, which is a very big day for him. He's going to take part in a match and he's a little worried about it because he's the youngest player in the team. He hopes they will beat their rivals and manage to win the Cup.

But even if they lose, he won't be too disappointed. A dog-sled ride along the river bank will definitely make him feel happy again. He loves feeling the wind on his face while his strong huskies pull the sled.
