➤ Model Question: What do you like doing in your free time?

Opening Phrases

What I really love doing is ...
I like reading because ...
I also enjoy ...

Hobbies

- read books
- learn about things
- enrich vocabulary
- outdoor sports
- exercise and keep fit

Ideas to Use

➤ Model Answer

What I really love doing is reading books. The reason I like reading books is because I can learn about a lot of things. I also enjoy outdoor sports, such as playing volleyball because I can exercise and keep fit. I'd like to be a member of a team, but unfortunately I don't have much free time to do that. However whenever I have free time, I take advantage of it and do the things I like.

PART 2. INDIVIDUAL TALKS: Entertainment

Read the Model Prompts and Answers.

Model Prompt for Student A: Is it important to have a computer at home these days?

As far as I'm concerned, it is. First of all,...
Secondly, ...
And more importantly, ...

Advantages of Computers at Home

- surf the Net
- get up-to-date information about everything
- provides entertainment
- play games with friends or alone
- chat with people from all over the world
- become familiar with information technology

Model Answer Student A:

As far as I'm concerned, yes it is. First of all, we can surf on the Net and get up-to-date information about anything we want. Secondly, it provides entertainment. We can play games with friends, or alone, or chat with people from all over the world. And more importantly, having a computer means that we become familiar with information technology.

Teacher to Student B: What's your opinion?

I'm not sure if I agree.
Having a computer might have advantages, but what about the disadvantages?
Moreover, ...
In my opinion,...

Disadvantages of Computers at Home

- children usually play alone
- not socialise with other children
- better to play outdoor games
- team sports

Model Answer Student B:

I'm not sure if I agree. Having a computer at home might have advantages, but what about the disadvantages? It can be addictive and some sites are dangerous for children. Moreover, children usually play alone and don't socialise with other children. In my opinion, it would be better to play outdoor games or team sports such as basketball with other children.

Stage 3: Comparing and Contrasting

(approximately 3 minutes)

Now we are going to discuss something together.

1. I'd like you to tell me if you would rather go to a live music performance or watch one on TV, and why.
2. I'd like you to tell me if it is better to shop in small shops or in shopping centres, and why.
3. I'd like you to tell me if you prefer playing video games or reading books, and why.

Choose the question that corresponds to the picture

What makes you say that? Is there another advantage/disadvantage you can think of? Do you have anything else to add?

Stage 4: Role Play

(approximately 3 minutes)

Now we are going to take part in a role play. Here is a card with a situation on it..

Choose one card per student

Card 1

You are chatting to your online friend (the interviewer) on Facebook.

- Greet him/her appropriately
- Ask him/her what he/she did today
- Tell him/her about your plans for the holidays
- Invite him/her to join you and tell him/her what you will do together
- End the conversation appropriately

Card 2

You are being invited by your friend (the interviewer) to dinner.

- Greet him/her appropriately
- Ask him/her why you are being invited

Student 1:

When you have all the information you need, explain which place they should choose and why. Be ready to explain why they shouldn't choose the other option.

Follow-up questions:

- Should elderly people live with their children? What are the advantages and disadvantages?
- How can older people contribute when living with their family?
- What are some of the activities senior citizens can do?

Practice tests for B2

Test 1.

Part One: Introductions (3 minutes)

The interlocutor elicits personal information. The candidates respond to the interlocutor and not to each other.

- What would you do with your friends to celebrate a special occasion, such as a birthday?
- What are the problems of having a pet in a city flat?
- Are you a slave to fashion, or do you dress to suit yourself?
- Do you think there are good quality programs on the TV at this time? What kinds of programs are good?

Topic: Lifestyles

The interlocutor introduces the topic for the main part of the interview.

Part Two: Interactive Discussion (4 minutes)

Candidates discuss a topic based on two prompts provided by the interlocutor. The interlocutor does not take part in the discussion.

Candidate A and B

- Have you ever seen a crime being committed?
- Do you think the police do a good job in Greece?

Part Three: Responding To Questions (5 minutes)

A three-way discussion between the interlocutor and candidates based on the interview topic. The interlocutor leads the discussion by selecting questions. The interlocutor should encourage the candidates to react to each other.

- Describe a theatrical performance or music concert you have been to.
- How do most young people spend their free time?
- What is your favourite way of spending an evening out? Why?
- Do you prefer to spend your time alone or in company? Why?
