It is the children's first day back at school after the summer holidays. Jason's new teacher, Mr Thomson, wants the class to write a short composition about their lives and families. He wants to get to know his pupils.

My name is Jason Alexiou. I am eleven years old and I come from Greece, but I live in London with my family. My father is a businessman and my mother works as a teacher at my school. My sister, Helen, is one year older than me and she also attends this school. I love my sister but we argue almost every day. She doesn't understand boys at all!

I don't have many hobbies because I have very little free time but I like computer games. I also spend time with my friends and write emails to my penfriends when I haven't got too much homework. I like my life in London, but sometimes I miss Greece. In Athens, the sun always shines and my friends there usually play outside. I hope to move back one day, but not yet. To tell the truth, I love travelling to different countries. We move around a lot because of my father's job and maybe we will move to Australia next year. As you can see, my family lives a very exciting life!
